

2024 PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES

CSFP (130% FPL)

The Commodity Senior Food Program (CSFP) also known as the “Commodity Supplemental Food Program” and “Food Plus” works to improve the health of low-income persons who are at least 60 years of age by supplementing their diets with a monthly package of nutritious food at no cost.

To be eligible for CSFP, a person must reside in Arizona, be at least 60 years old, and have a total household income that does not exceed 130% of the federal poverty level. (See following table)

Household Size	Yearly	Monthly	Weekly
1	$19,578	$1,632	$377
2	$26,572	$2,215	$511
